

Bailey wanted to share a glimpse into his world by giving us a "feel" for reading with Braille. Look at the Braille alphabet and find the letters in your name. Then, draw your name on the Braille sheet and write an equation that shows how many dots make up your name!

