

Good Morning! Today is Tuesday, October 16, 2012

It's almost Grandpa's Birthday! He loves books. Let's go shopping at the Greenfield Bookstore.

Today our Math Vitamin features characters from our new Read Aloud, Mystery at the Fair.

The Boxcar children spread out to hunt for a literary treasure! They are so excited, that they pull all the books off the shelves in the Collectibles Section. Let's help them return the books to the shelves!

There are 5 shelves. See a teacher to find out how many books were on the floor, and divide them evenly back on the shelves.
