

Directions:

1. Find a partner and a set of flowers and place them face-up in a group.
2. Choose one flower to begin your bouquet.

For example: A BIG, green, cosmos:

3. Take turns finding the next flower in the row.
It should have two similar attributes and one that is different.

(Remember, look at the SHAPE, size and color!)

BIG
green
cosmos

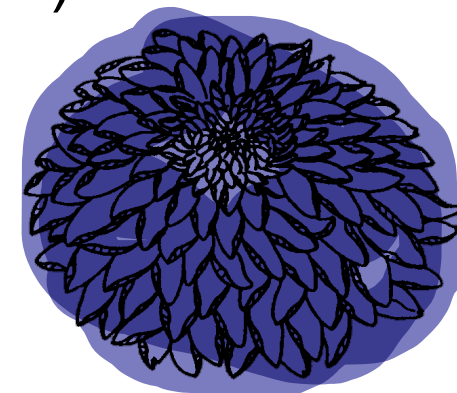

small
green
cosmos

small purple
cosmos

small purple
mum

BIG
purple
mum

See if you can make an arrangement using the whole set. Good luck!