

Yesterday we started to learn about three-dimensional geometric shapes. These shapes can be found everywhere! Can you find these shapes in our classroom or other parts of the school?

rectangular prism

