

Good Morning, Earthlings! Earth time is May 9, 2012.

After Alex took off in Star Jumper, he realized he had to create inventions to adapt to life in space.

The Micro-Blaster

What do you need now that you are headed to a galaxy far far away? Do you need a space shower? A space refrigerator? An escape pod? A vacuum toilet?

Use Cuisinaire rods to build your designs and measure your creation in centimeters.
