

Good Morning!

An object is symmetrical if at least one side is a REFLECTION of the other. Let's explore this further. Find a partner and use the Penta-blocks to build a collaborative design. Hold a mirror next to it and observe its reflection.

What do you notice? What else can you discover when you move the mirrors or change your design?